Eagle Employment Services Mission

It is the mission of Eagle Employment Services, a program funded through Indiana Vocational Rehabilitation, to assist individuals with specific barriers to employment in locating, securing, and maintaining employment of their choice.

Eagle Employment works to form a partnership with individuals and employers to ensure a smooth transition to employment.

We Soar Above the Rest!

WHY CHOOSE EAGLE EMPLOYMENT SERVICES?

If you choose Eagle Employment, we will assist you in developing a job goal that best matches your employment interest and ability. Once a job goal is determined, you and your Employment Specialist will develop a plan that will direct your services.

Eagle Employment will give you support in developing job seeking skills, such as interviewing skills, resume development, and filling out applications. Eagle will also help connect you with employers looking for workers with your skills and interests. Once you have a job, Eagle will aid you in learning your new job and negotiating with your employer for needed accommodations.

WE CARE

If you are worried about losing your current benefit status (SSI, SSDI), Eagle Employment staff will provide information on how to protect those benefits while continuing to work. Individuals who have had difficulties finding and maintaining employment due to disability and desire to rejoin the workforce can call

Eagle Employment at: (260) 481-2828.
